

Profile of Anisha Joseph

Anisha Joseph is the Head of Sexual Assault Care Centre and Support Services of AWARE. She has supported numerous survivors of abuse and has done trainings with frontline professionals and community partners to equip them with knowledge of first response to survivors.

A social worker by qualification, Anisha studied Criminology and Justice from Tata Institute of Social Sciences, India and worked in the field of Prison Reforms with an International NGO, Commonwealth Human Rights Initiative.

Anisha also did a summer course on 'Mental Disability Law in practice' from Central European University and worked with prisoners with mental illness for her master's thesis. Before joining the social sector, Anisha did B.Sc (Hons.) Physics from St. Stephen's College, India and also worked in the field of Human Resources for corporates and NGOs.